

ST. PIUS WOMEN'S CLUB
PRESENTS A NIGHT OF RECOLLECTION
FEATURING MERI McCOY-THOMPSON

Wednesday, November 14th 7:00 pm
Homer Crouse Hall

The theme of the evening will be:
"Stuff of Life, Stuff of Hope"

Sometimes, as women, we are so busy with "life" taking care of family, pursuing our career, tending to friends' needs, organizing the household, working in the community, that we don't have the time to tend to our own spiritual needs. Fortunately, this "life" that God has given us can also be our biggest source of spiritual growth and inspiration if we learn to look at it with new eyes. Our women's spiritual path may be more cluttered with busyness than contemplation, but it can be a rich treasure for ourselves, our families, and our church.

Please join us for this evening of recollection and see how Meri can help us see the stuff of our life as the stuff of hope.

A short bio of Meri McCoy-Thompson:

- 20 years educating families and professionals about health and spirituality
- Specialty in supporting healthy development and spiritual growth in families
- Former project director for Bright futures
- Directed the family program at the Catholic Community of Pleasanton
- Co-creator and co-presenter of the 2003 Buena Vista National Convocation: "Celebrating God's People Across the Generations"
- Helped launch a non-profit in India
- She is married with two teenage children

Complimentary desserts and coffee will be served. All are welcome to attend.